hi akhilesh,i want to thanks you for leading me to them. i got my driver and been playing them for 70 hours now, they sound really good in my horn, very musical and a lot of good bass,the mid and highs are good too, they sound much better than the fostex 103zeno

Glad to help, Zeno. I liked their musicality too, right off the bat. IN a PAWA horn, with an actively crossed sub at 70hz, they are very very nice! -akhilesh

Hi ZenoSorry to hear your having such trouble with your e-mail.The DCA5.5M'S drivers shipped 1/10 and left the U.S. on 1/22.Verified with post office.You should receive the drivers soon.Feel free to post your impressions on the forum.Also check out Akilesh's comments on the drivers.I'm not wild about posting personal messages on the forum, but I know your e-mail is down Your
