Hi everyone, NExt GPAC (Great PLains Audio Club) Meet at my place, December 16. I will send an email to all of you with my address & other info. If you do NOT get that email in the next 2 days, please email me. WE can hear some new projects I have built, including an All altec system based on the 515B & 808A, plus a fostex study system (with a 4 inch driver doing service from 100 HZ up) as well as my trusonic based system, and even my 1978 stock klipschorns. Overall a fun time. Lots of amps, lots of sources, including my little ole fully modded Mueatex bidat in the trusonic based system. Hope to see folk there!-akhilesh

Any chance you could come? It's in Tulsa, and we'd all love to see you! If not, maybe GPAF next spring?

Shooting for sometime next year; maybe spring. Try to time it for the school schedule. Due for a drive-by I would say! Claustrophobia sets in. Time for a roadtrip. Happy Turkey to you'all; don't eat too much now, save some of the stuffing for me.

Hi Wayne, I know we usually have it on a Saturday, but the last time we met, remember we decided Dec 16? I posted it as the 16th, and then later realized it would be Friday, but it was too late to change. Anyways, since 17th is my b'day, I think it's good to make an exception this time and keep it on Friday, as announced. We'll start at 2 pm, but if people need to come later they can, since it's a Friday. -akhilesh
