There are now four stories on the VTV EXPO posted on the VTV website.http://www.vacuumtube.com/vtv%20news.htmGo to the above link for almost one hundred different photos, of people, gear, systems, and more.Over 1000 people attended and there were about 40 paid vendors at the expo. We will be doing one in NY/NJ in late April 2006 and one again during the Stereophile show in LA June 3,4 2006.Hope your can make it out to one of these.all the best

Congratulations!I heard it was very small and intimate, just the kind of show I like. Gives people a chance to really listen to the systems, and to be able to meet, mingle and talk with one another.More pics:
