Fred any chance we get the write up on the 3 Pi/Selah comparison? You have a couple nice examples of DIY's. What do you listen too most? Nice photo's; thanks for the pics. Looks like we can use some excersize there Bottleheads; some mighty fine bellies on display.

The comparison was between a Zaph Audio speaker with Seas drivers and the 3 Pi Theater. It wasn't the most valid comparison because we heard only one track of one disk on each speaker then voted for a favorite. Almost everybody was standing 15' or more away from the speakers. There's a brief summary at <http://audioroundtable.com/Speaker/messages/708.html> listen to a variety of classical and popular music. My most recent disk purchases are examples: Bartok, Handel Opera Arias, Susan Tedeschi, Muddy Waters, Galactic, Wynton Marsalis. Those are Texas-size beer bellies! Even our women have them, and we display them with as much pride as we do the shotguns on the rack in our super duty pickup trucks.

It looks like a great time was had by all. I enjoyed coming to visit all of you Texas Bottleheads last summer, and I'm looking forward to seeing you all again at GPAF in May.

Excellent. That pride is well earned! Thanks for the report. You have very well organised and informative show reports and photo's. Kudo's.
