Hi Wayne:Here's another site for your list <http://www.ofgb.org/>. I just stumbled upon it today, but under "references" the have a lot of cut sheets, etc...An example is at the link below.
<http://www.ofgb.org/reference/Music/JBL/Datasheets/>

That's a handy link, thanks! Have you seen the obsolete section of the JBL Pro site? There's a lot of information and spec sheets on products that are no longer manufactured. And their technical library is good too.

Subject: re: JBL site - yeah, I spend a lot of time there <nt>
