Hello there, I wonder if anyone might be able to help me identify a pair of vintage Goodmans Speakers? I bought these 2nd hand about 15 years ago and they have a lovely sound, but I don't know anything about them. They have no model name or serial number. I put a few pictures online, I would be grateful if you could take a look at them. Thanks John

Sorry, I'm no help; I don't know Goodmans. But I wanted to say those are really cool and I'm glad I got to see them. I hope someone around here can help you identify them.
