Hey everyone, Got a Marantz 10B from an estate sale. Its a bit dusty and I dont know if everything works properly. The unit overall is in excellent condition, it looks great. What is a ballpark estimate for how much it would be to have it reconditioned? And what could I sell it for now in its unconditioned/unproven state?

Major score. Test if possible - you'll get more for it. If you ship, PACK WELL. Assume the shippers will run over it or drop it a few times. Congrats on your find!.....Colin
