I have a Marshall Orange Crush VS102R (2X12 150W) Combo. It has Orange toltex, and the fat Orange Crush logo at the bottom of the grill. I can't find out anythin on this amp (when it was made and how many were made). I realize this is a rare amp, but if anyone has any info on it, please let me know. It is a real head turner, and can hang with any half stack that I've played against.

I have one too, and I know just as much as you. It's got a killer sound, that's about all I know.
