Hi everyone. I live in a valley on an island in Hawaii. There's no music stores here so I buy all my gear off the internet which sucks cause I can't sample anything or even hear how it'll sound. I was wondering if anyone had tried either of these amps and could give me a reccomendation. I have an Ibanez Jet King II and I play classic rock, reggae, and some blues. Which amp will work best with that? Thank you very very much.

I haven't played the Marshall, but I have the Pathfinder and I love it. It has a distinct tone quality all it's own and a blast to play.Good luck!Hipster
