Welcome to the Craftsmen forum at AudioRoundTable.com! This is where we discuss all matters involved in building and servicing equipment and cabinets. Everything from soldering to routing to veneering and finishing is discussed here. Don't bother watching "Home Improvement" or "Tool Time" 'cause this is the place to be! Enjoy!

I wanted to make this message off the group. The suggestion is to make an icon out of your logo in the proper place in Windows. I'm using Firefox and have set up my bookmarks toolbar with some things. If the icon image is stored in the right place, Firefox picks it up. This has worked for things like IMDb, Green Bay Packers, Wonkette, The Wayback Machine and Pacifica Radio (for Democracy Now!) Your logo looks good and should show up even in the small image on the toolbar.
