I think some of those would be like putting flames on a Nash Rambler. :-|

Beep Beep (Little Nash Rambler) Beep beep Beep beep His horn went beep beep beep While riding in my Cadillac What to my surprise A little Nash Rambler was following me About one-third my size The guy must have wanted to pass me up As he kept on tooting his horn I'll show him that a Cadillac's not a car to scorn I pushed my foot down to the floor To give the guy the shake But the little Nash Rambler stayed right behind He still had on his brake He must have thought his car had more guts As he kept on tooting his horn I'll show him that a Cadillac's not a car to scorn My car went in to passing gear And we took off with gust And soon we were doing ninety Must have left him in the dust When I peeked in the mirror of my car I couldn't believe my eyes The little Nash Rambler was right behind You'd think that guy could fly Now we're doing a hundred and ten It certainly was a race For a Rambler to pass a Caddy Would be a big disgrace The guy must have wanted to pass me up As he kept on tooting his horn I'll show him that a Cadillac's not a car to scorn Now we're doing a hundred and twenty As fast as I could go The Rambler pulled alongside of me As if we were going slow The fellow rolled his window down And yelled for me to hear "Hey buddy how can I get this car out... of... second gear!"

Prob'ly my favorite group of all time is Big daddy on Rhino Records. "Why?" you say. Well because they take modern day tunes and do them in 50'sstyle-- taking the lyric from one and applying it to the melody of another. On the melody of Beep Beep, they use the lyric of "Little Red Corvette" by the once and future Nelson Rogers (aka Prince.) y

"Big Daddy," sounds cool. I'll have to check 'em out.
