Lowe's and Home Depot are chasing your X-Mas dollars with 20% off ALL power tools this weekend. And no payments no interest 'til 06.And one will beat the other's price on the same item by 10%. What fun. Look for a "Ridgid 12 volt cordless drill for $99 less the discounts; Porter-Cable 690 router $99 ditto; and the Ryobi and Delta table saws. Also Bosch jigsaw, a really good jigsaw, with free random orbital sander; plus Makita circular saw.....

Jeez, it's Sunday before I saw this.  But you'd make a good salesman.  The hot tool I'd like to find is some sort of bisquit joinerthat is less "industrial."  These things all look and feelawkward to handle.
