Just a very inexpensive 12" but good High Speed Steel knives.Never turned before so just whittlin'. Not difficult with sharp tools. VERY addictive, and oh-so relaxing. Could be some selector knobs in the future.

I'm figuring we let Bill get his skills down by making some nice, custom turned sake cups, then when he has the geometry right for that, we'll all pitch in and get him a big-boy machine... what do you think??
