It is a sad day. I just can't keep my albums. I've recorded most to CD and/or tape and don't even have a TT anymore. They are taking up a LOT of space and would be best in someone here's hands. I will trade for tube gear to drive my new pair of Altec 604k-16x. Outright selling price is a measely $1 an album($2500). Don't ask for a list - that would be work. You have my word that this collection is a steal at the asking price. I will not split it up! Collection description:1500 are rock from 60's 70's 80's. The rest are miscellaneous - junk to some, gold to others, mostly collections, unknown bands, special occasion lps, some classical, funk, disco, reggae. I would say there are at least 500 near mint, 750 vg+. These are conservative numbers - you will be surprised how many may be mint/near mint. There are some duplicates. This is a great deal for someone who wants an instant collection. You pay shipping, I will pack them and supply boxes. Pickup preferred as shipping will be at least 40-50 boxes and probably 700 lbs. I'm in Ottawa,Ontario,Canada so that's about 5 hours drive from Toronto, 2 from Montreal. If you don't know how to get to either of those places?
