Check this out: Last night, Melissa and I took little Eddie out to the Tulsa State Fair. The weather was beautiful and we thought it might be nice to get out for an hour or two, each some cheap fair food and see the sights.When we got there, I noticed that Morris Day and the Time were scheduled to play. What a gass! We got to see those guys do the Bird and all the rest of their stuff. They played for over an hour; We only could stay for some of it. They did their syncopated dance steps just like 15 years ago. It was so much fun!

Wayne,We are an accumulation of our experiences and what we have learned through life.I think it is good that you are exposing Eddie to life and music through these different experiences at such an early age.You are teaching him about life, and most importantly, you are teaching him to live.Bravo!Norris

I was kind of amazed to see The Time at the fair. Are you going this year?

I don't think I will make the fair this year. I have made the past three years running. My wife and I thought we would take a break this year.I would have enjoyed seeing The Time concert though.We are glad that you got to see them along with your family.Have fun!

I wish we had entertainment like that down here in Tennessee.
