(Takes a long breath…)Well, here goes. I have a new baby daughter and need to significantly lighten my personal audio stash. These are some of my cherry-picked best pieces, and I hate to part with them, especially some of the rare and lovely drivers.Whatever doesn't sell will go up on Ebay with a reserve set to the prices you see below. In other words, prices will only go up from here.EV SP-12 wide-range pair, alnico, protected in cabinets their whole life, excellent shape. $225Fostex FE 168 Sigma pair (old version) whizzers removed for even cleaner midrange, sound great. $100JBL 2150 coaxial single. good shape. $75B&K VMR 654 6-channel amplifier. Extreme quality. $250Tannoy CMS65 ICT coaxial pair, inductively coupled domes, crossoverless, brand new in boxes. $70Selenium ST320 slot tweeters—the high-performance ones—like new in boxes with extra replacement diaphragm. $75JBL 2342 horns (featured on 4425 monitors) like new. $220JBL 2344a horns (featured on 4430 monitors) like new $275Saba 8" greencone pair, alnico, excellent $110Saba 4" greencone tweeters, excellent $40Philips 9710M pair, good condition. $225Dynaudio D54af pair, dome midranges, new in boxes. $225EV PRO-12B coaxial pair, excellent condition, foam like new (very rare!) $160Rane AC23 crossover, fully functional, all there. $110Grado Green phono cartridge, used once, like new. $75JBL 2485J midrange compression driver pair—Excellent! Includes an extra pair of NIB correct diaphragms. $430Stephens FR120 single widerange driver. Fine shape, no dings on center cap. $70Blaupunkt PA275 Tripath digital 2-ch. full-range amp. Excellent. $75Hamlin's (same as Lafayette SK-98) fullrange driver pair. EXTREMELY rare and sought-after. $180A pair of vanishingly rare white-cone coral fullranges, very similar to the Fostex / Foster Fe103a. Excellent. $75Fostex / Foster FE103a driver pair still in tunnel-reflex admiral enclosures. Excellent and very rare. $75Knight KN 612 HC coax pair in great condition. These were manufactured by EV and are practically identical to the more common EV 12trx. Very rare. $225

If whoever bought the fostex fe103a is planning on putting a plug in it, here is a request: please don;t do it, and send me an email, i'll pay you a premium for it. I am looking for a pair of fostex fe103a drivers that are in original shape for an experiment. thanks
