I have a single Acoustic Research AR1 available for sale. This is the one with the Altec 755A 8" midrange driver and AR woofer. Grill cloth and badge intact. Best "reasonable" offer I would like for someone to get the whole speaker if interested but would be willing to sell the single Altec 755A alone. If interested, email for photos and more info. Thanks, Ron

Did you ever sell it? I would love to have one, but have no money until I win the power ball lottery. Dick

I finally ended up selling the 755A but still have the cab and woofer. I gave up on trying to find another. RC

Too bad. It's a great woofer, too. Bet it still has its surround in good shape. They hadn't yet learned how to make them flimsy and cheaper. Dick
