thanks for getting back ti me so quick. I am using a Anthem Int 1 which uses 4 el84's per channel rated conservatively at 25 a side, I think it's closer to 40 , right now I'm running a pair of energy C8's 2 8's and a 1" dome real room 93dB 1w 1m running them doesn't seem to phase the amp ,that said the little Mission 750LE did NOT match well at all .I'm going to read the items you've highlighted p.s. how much more does shipping to Bellingham add to let's say the 4pi
