Noted today they have 4638 low freq units on special, a 4508 cab with a pair of 8 ohm 2035 woofs for system z of 4 ohms, around $200. The 4648A-8 systems are $220.21, using the same 4508 dual 15 enclosure, but with a pair of 2226J's, for system z of 8 ohms. Same systems on the b-stock sale are over $1K each, what's up with that? And a measly 137 pounds apiece...where the heck is the dolly at? Sam
