I used to shop at the shopping mall every weekends. I used to buy dvd's, cd's and other latest album for my collection. I also shopped in home audio store and looked for offers and promotions. How about you?

If the weather is good, we are out riding and BBQing. If not its in with friends and movies. The internet is my friend for anything I dont have to try on, as well as clothes you cant find in the midwest.

My weekend hobbies and entertainment consist of being in the studio. I love being in the studio making music. Thats all I do on the weekends. Nothing else.

I know tha tis right, I am addicted to shopping online. I hate going to clothing stores and taking oof and on cloths. I like to barbeque as well when it feels good outside or going to the park to see all the hot cars.
