Maybe. Ohio is pretty far away and I don't get my full license until april or may, so I'd have to get my father to drive me down. I also have osme other things going on in March.If you can give me the exact date of the event, I'll defintely see what I can do though.Adam Definitely will bring the Theatre 4's and possibly Pro 7's if I get them done in time. Of course March weather, the fact that Joe Bfstplk ('Lil abner reference) is my patron saint and I have an open pick-up; we'll see. I'll also bring the Foreplay and Paramours if you promise to help me find and cure the slight hummmmmm. Can everybody at least bring their cables and interconnects? There's never a chance to really compare them. Can't wait.
