linked on to this site and was originally intrigued enough to download the first 2 issues. enjoyed the stereophile and audio critic bashing but all hope was lost when horn speakers started getting slammed. oh well, still got my ears.cheers,george replay---Well who cares what that old fart thinks. I've been listening to this anti-horn nonsense the whole 30 years I've been with this hobby. If the jasper wants to suffer with muddy bass and compressed dynamics he can have a field day. I think He's a shill for Vandersteen, some of the worst, most muddled speakers I ever heard.
