Hi Wayne,Could you please email the plans for the Theater Pi7 horns? I had intended to build this system with JBL components, but I want to proceed rather than wait to accumulate the funds for the more expensive drivers. Sorry to be a pain.Best,Pat Landrum

Hi Wayne,You sent Thermionic Series six Pi plans instead of Theater (Delta series). Also,do you sell a pre-assembled crossover for this series, and if so, how much? Can I send you some money for all this trouble?Best,Pat

Oops! Sorry - Check your mail again. I sent the right plans this time. Pre-assembled crossovers are $99.00 each.

I do try to keep the prices down, that's true. Thanks for noticing and for your support.

That's below my cost! I just did some calculations and I can't get all the parts for that price even using generics. You must buy a lot of them to get costs down so low.Adam

That's right. We buy in bulk to keep costs down.
