Pyle is now owned by Pyramid and they do not manufacture any product. theyre U.S.A made speakers are Eminence and chinese stuff is outsourced. it's a strong bet Motorola makes that tweeter or else it's a chinese knockoff.cheers,george

I bought the Pyle pair (3 actually) a while ago. They don'thave the protection circuit, and if the freq. response doesto go 30KHz, its down a few dB, because they don't sound likeit. Nothing on them says Motorola nor CTS. When I buy somemore, I'll get the CTS/Moto versions. They don't sound bad,but I expected a little more based on the comments othershave posted about the CTS 1165's. You can't complain toomuch for $5-6$ each.Chris
