Wayne and Melissa, I could not have enjoyed the show more! Thank you so much. Richard Gray and I are already looking forward to next year. I must apologize to all the other exhibitors for not getting around and being sociable. I tried four times to "make the rounds", but I move slowly and each time got called back to my room after only hitting one or two rooms. So I guess I could have enjoyed it more - next time I'll come up with a better plan so I can meet more people.Thanks also to the North Texas audio club for their support and enthusiasm. Hopefully the presence of DIY rooms will continue to grow.Again, thanks from me and Lori and Richard as well as my friends from New Orleans - Robert, Jim, and Mike - for creating and bringing to life such a wonderful event. All the work and promotion that went into it - nobody got paid for, so participation in the show was as accessible as possible. What a relief from CES! If I ever do a show, I plan to follow Wayne and Melissa's model.Duke

Thanks a million for coming, Duke! It was great to see you and I look forward to seeing you again next year. Like you, I regret I couldn't get around more to see and hear. I just had too much to tend to. But fortunately, Melissa got photos and she said everything sounded great! She'll do write-ups as time permits. Also, Dagogo was there and so was Positive-Feedback, so I think we can expect to see show coverage from each of them in the near future.

Duke, I got 2 well-lit pix of your room and you were moving in both. Slow my s!But I stole a pic from Melissa of the Jazz to include in my show report which I filed this morning. Constantine said he'd rush it to the website; gotta scoop P-F!

Man, Bill, I'm so glad you came out this year. Both 'cause we got a chance to hang out and also for the show coverage you did. And the talk you and Steve did was great too. I went through the seminar recording audio files yesterday to give to Melissa for ART radio. They're excellent. Thanks!

Thanks to everyone for the hospitality and the tunes! There were a lot of great sounding rooms this year. It was a damn fine show and it ended up being a great trip and a tremendous learning experience.Thanks for the hospitality, too. You (all) always treat me like family even though I slink in from the East coast. Many thanks.Barry
