Yeah, I know, I'm a little late. Bill, Akhilesh and Albert did such a good job on Dagogo and Positive Feedback that I almost wondered whether or not to even post. Plus little Eddie keeps me busy. But Wayne plans to change the LSAF website to show dates for next year's show and to archive the coverage, so I thought it best to go ahead and write-up the rooms. I've also added links to other coverage for easy access to information about the 2007 show. I'm already getting excited to see you all at next year's LSAF!!! Thanks Melissa. Great job.I can't believe the things I missed at "our" small show. Can only imagine how I'll get to everything if I make it to Denver!
