I was wondering the same thing. Think I'll call him right now.

...Nobody home right now. Left a message. I hope all is well and he's just been enormously busy making Jazz Modules and stuff. I'm sure he'll check in soon.

I just talked to him and he's been busy as a bee. His internet connection isn't all that great right now either, so that makes checking in kinda difficult. But Duke and Lori are doing just fine.
