Well he must be fast 'cause I ordered the 2Pi kit on Friday, it shipped on Monday and arrived today. That's fast.Doc B., are you listening?I am having a problem though...figuring out which is the terminal cup and which is the tweeter?Oh, and just in case I come up with another revolutionary speaker design, it is okay to have the tweeter outside the box, yes?

Wayne sure does provide it. So does Doc B. Don't blame Doc for any shipping delays; blame all the happy customers who ordered before you--just as I blame you for depleting Wayne's supply of woofers for 2pi's before I ordered mine on Monday. :) These occasional delays are unavoidable for such specialty suppliers.Thanks to Wayne, Doc, Ron, Ned, and all the other very hard-working proprietors of the small businesses which make our hobby so much more enjoyable.
