a heineken. mike, whaddya mean you can't get that beer. stella artois, no problem. i can probably fit 6 two fours ( that's canadian slang for a 24 pack) in a theater 4 pi cabinet. i'll just declare it as honda parts. my favourite is heineken. the "h" stands for horns. anyways why don't you take the family to toronto for a road trip, heck you get an extra 55 cents on every dollar and you can lug two cases back for free.how much to ship a couple of kewpie burgers?cheers,george

Kewpees don't ship well.....I should just locate a store in Windsor that has Stella. That would be 2.1 hours away. It ain't in the US. Hopefully my recollection of the beer is accurate and it is as good as I remember. I do, also, of course, like Heinies.....
