Hi Wayne,after a few hours of thinking i've found out, that I'd very appreciate the plans for the ten PI and the cornerhorn to learn the construction technique. Would you be please so kind, and send me the mentioned plans? And I have one little question, asked maybe thousand times. Are there any major differences in the sound of the cornerhorns and the 10PI?Thanks in advance,S.

Thank You, Wayne!You are the greatest :) The idea of using four 10PIs per side is attractive, but won't fit into my listening room. Just kidding :)Thank You once more,S.
