
Subject: What's your cure for daily 8 hours of Christmas music, I'm listening to...

Posted by BillEpstein on Thu, 12 Dec 2002 18:38:49 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

'Nice'n Easy' celebrating Sinatra; Nelson Riddle arrang./Cinnci Pops.Sure it's elevator music, but it swings!Telarc SACD 60532

Subject: Manheim Steamroller

Posted by Wayne Parham on Thu, 12 Dec 2002 19:47:14 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Ever listened to Manheim Steamroller? Here's a fun link that plays a RealAudio broadcast of seasonal material: "Everything from Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra to the latest from Mariah Carey, Faith Hill, Manheim Steamroller and the Trans-Siberian Orchestra."

www.ChristmasRadioNetwork.com

Subject: Merry Christmas Baby - Elvis Presley

Posted by LuxmanLover on Thu, 12 Dec 2002 20:02:22 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Could listen to that one all YEAR long....Elvis is KingKelly

Subject: Manhattan Transfer's "The Christmas Album" is quite listenable...

Posted by Garland on Thu, 12 Dec 2002 21:14:27 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

...as is Vince Guaraldi's "A Charlie Brown Christmas"G.

Subject: nothing like...

Posted by portedmike on Fri, 13 Dec 2002 21:57:32 GMT

to cure the evil christmas music effects..110db @50hz test tones..godskitchen'the best hard house ever'gatecrasherand some hard trance that sounds like nothing more than a ts404 making buzzing soounds and a drum beat:-D
