I've started setting aside LP's to take to Lima, and it's getting to be quite a heap.Then it occured to me that I should ask prospective attendees what they'd like to hear. Help me fill the milk crates . . . whaddya think? CD's, too, please . . .Thanks! Keep your ears and your mind open.

I'd like to hear a lot of stuff, and I've got vinyl in excellent condition for much of it. Honestly, I've been real "finicky" through the years about keeping my records in good shape, and I think I'll bring CD's because of that. But I may bring some records, and I'm glad that you are willing to bring some too.I'd like to hear a large assortment of stuff:Moody BluesGenesis, and Peter GabrielYes, and Rick WakemanKansasSupertrampFleetwood MacPink FloydBeethovenBraumsTchaikovskyToolNine Inch NailsMetalicaSarah MclachlanAlla PugachovaLarisa DolinaKristina ObrakaiteNicolai NoskovOingo Boingo (Danny Elfman)Glenn MillerFrank SinatraNat Cole, and maybe his daughter tooJust a whole lot of stuff. It will be nice to hear some of your favorites too.

Hi Wayne!Well, since I'm bringing multiple turntables, it'd be silly not bring some licorice pizza, don'tcha think? ;-)Please bring a few favorites, at least. I promise we'll be gentle with them.When I get back in the shop on Monday, I'll compile a list and post it here.
Keep your ears and your mind open.

I've got a bunch of the late-70's "half speed masters" so I'll bring a few of them with me.
