Something the Wicked Witch of the West would do to annoy you?Hunh-unh.On the counter at Radio Shack when I paid for some phono plugs; $10 bucks, had to have one. You should see it scrabble across the floor and use it's sensors to turn, back up, and move on.It's something the WWofW did to annoy Muse who quickly learned to get it on it's back, all 6 legs waving hopelessly in the air, just like the real thing."Hours of fun, cat sold separately."

Those things are pretty cool. Bought one for lil' Eddie a few months back. You're right - the cats like it too!
