Gang, Just finished unloading the truck, couldn't give the Pioneer CS88 speakers away that I brought. I DID go home with 2 pairs of beautiful wooden horns, Martinelli's and Edgars, If I were not so damn tired right now, I would hook them up this instant. Great work Mike, you really know how to make a crowd happy!!! I had a wonderful time, my only problem was trying to be in 3 places at once:-(Special thanks to the Martinelli family for letting us keep them up really late Friday nite, and Wayne (Pi) and wife for letting us keep them up really late Saturday night. I know both nights, I was getting that look "Is he ever going to leave???" And of course to a friend of mine I met for first time in person, Wayne from Indiana with some great home brewed beer. There are more folks to thank, etc.....Just to tired to think straight right now. Mike, can we start planning for next year now???????I will see if I can generate enough interest to have a "Mini-fest" in Columubus, Ohio, I don't think I could do anything even close to Mike's gig in Lima, but maybe could have a little one in the fall.Thank you everyone, please forgive me if I have not mentioned everyone, I remember many faces, but names just elude me right now.Regards, One happy spkrman57!!!!!!!!!!!!! Cheers, Ron
