You guys gotta check this place out. They carry everything! I spoke with this guy back in 2001, and we started talking again here recently. So I went to his site to re-familiarize myself with what all he has, and to my amazement, it looks like he carries a little bit of everything! Check it out.

I enjoyed reading the 6Moons review of the Amp 1 Gaincard chip amp by Audio Oasis. The guy has a way with words..._lots of them_ ... but gives a good description of why shortsignal paths in these spartan designs give the musica better attack over such as SET amps. The guysays the equivalent of 'smoother is not always better.' This is likely a debatable point but the logic made sense.

Yeah, that looks like a cool little amp. Frank has a ton more stuff too, and he's a real good guy to talk with. I hope to see him around here as time permits.
