Had to watch it alone. Now the 'rent-a-slut' (Maria Shriver to Charley Sheen, "...Charley, you're rich handsome and famous, why pay for sex?" "It's not the sex I paid for", says Charley, "I paid them to go home...") thinks I'm gay. Oh well.Didn't realise how long it had been around as a musical until I saw Bob Fosse credited as coreographer. Which figures. The Marionette scene is absolutely brilliant and the big band sound is great.I gave it 5 Netflix stars.

I agree with you completely. I saw it in the theater and thought how it should be one for the collection. So now I need to get a copy of Chicago on DVD and check it out at home.
