Another year winding down, and while I have turned mostly lurker these days I still have a lot to like about Pi Speakers and this forum. It might seem trivial to some but anything that can bring such satisfaction as my speakers and the great online community that comes with them, is truly worthy of thanks. I have learned a lot from many here, and had a whole lot of fun along the way. So thanks to all, great having ya around, and extra special thanks to Wayne for making all of this work and for keeping the ideas coming. Ready, Set, EATThomas

Happy Thanksgiving to you too! And to all my friends here, enjoy! It's a nice time to count our blessings. Not to get all mushy on you guys, but I really feel blessed to know you. Thanks for hanging out and making this site a fun place these past few years!

Happy Thanksgiving Everyone. Take the time to count your blessings. Play lots of music, and don't eat too much.
