I have seen dribs and drabs but nothing serious yet. The movies that stay with me and my other half never seem to be available. Just watched Treasure Of The Sierra Madre, John Huston is a trip.Anybody like the old motorcycle movies, like Billy Jack or Devils Angels?Remmember, Hot Rods TO Hell?Hells Angels on Wheels? Starred A young Jack Nicholson.You gotta be in the mood but they are fun.Anyone into a ten best thing?Best Sci-Fi?

'Spose it goes without saying, but "Easy Rider" has to be on the motorcycle movie list.

Right on Brother; I left that one open knowing someone would jump on it! I know it sounds dumb but I really like those old b-movies. Have you seen Hot Rods to Hell, with the family being chased by the Hotrodders?

They did a special where they show its history from the pilots returning from WWII, the "Pissed Off Bastards" and the "Booze Fighters," and on up to the present day.

Yeah; now they all drive Cadillacs and ride about once a month. They used to have a chapter on 14th street in Manhatten close to some of the clubs we attended. That was the safest block in the city.
