The (New) Alamo almost beats Gods and Generals as one of the turkeys of all time. But nothing can beat the cameo of Ted Turner as Himself in G&G. I can't help but think that all these war stories have cropped up in the gung ho aftermath of WTC and and that clever and subtle diversion to Iraq. And not knowing anything about the new Manchurian Candidate but awaiting inexpensive availability, I'm wondering what that adaptation will contribute to the current milieu.
