Does anyone know if Kevin Trancemitr still posts here? I saw threads from a while back that he has some Theater Fours and lives in Omaha, which is where I live. Any way, maybe he'll either see this or maybe someone has an email address for him...?

I couldn't find my info, but he is registered over at the Audio Asylum. Looks like he has expanded the system since I last heard it. If you register over there you can send him an email.Dan
